

Bangin' Away

It took 500 demo tapes sent out over 3 and a half years by Countdown Entertainment manager James Citkovic, but he finally landed Long Island rockers World Bang a major label deal. Radikal/Critique Records (distributed by BMG) signed the rockers and Citkovic even got major producer Steve Thompson (Guns N Roses, Blues Traveler, Metallica, Raquel Welch) to man the helm for the recordings on their debut, Pedofiend. Currently on tour to promote the release, World Bang also has 3 videos in the can and poised to be added to MTV. Ah, now there's where things get REALLY time consuming...
